

Haddonfield Outdoor Sculpture Trust

Celebrates the 3rd Annual “APRIL IS HADDONFIELD SCULPTURE MONTH”

THRU APRIL 22

Name Baby Ndotto!

Several years ago an orphaned baby elephant was found wandering Kenya's remote Ndotto hills. Just 48 hours old, he was rescued by local tribesmen, rehabilitated, and named Baby Ndotto ("our little dream"). Help name him at www.HaddonfieldSculpture.org.

APRIL 7-10

“Sculpture Craft Kit”

Pick up a make-your-own “Sculpture Craft Kit” at the Haddonfield Library while supplies last. Take photos and share to social media by Friday, April 23. No judging, prizes or exhibits – just fun! Recommended for ages 5 and up.

SATURDAY, APRIL 24*

International Sculpture Day!

1:00pm: Guided Sculpture Tours – leave from “Open Heart” sculpture in Kings Court.
3:00pm: Celebration at the Children's Sculpture Zoo, at Tatem Park, Kings Highway East and Evergreen Lane, including dedication of the Lion Bench and Meet Ndotto! Naming contest winner(s) to be announced with prizes TBD. Dress up in costume and BYOElephant.

*Rain date Sunday April 25.

DELIVERY SPRING 2021

One of only three real-life orphaned baby elephant sculptures in the world
- London, New York, and Haddonfield!

ALL MONTH & ANYTIME Self-Guided Sculpture Tours

Follow the walking tour map online at www.HaddonfieldSculpture.org. Take your own selfies and post to our social pages.

 HOST08033

 @HOST08033

 HOST08033

DISCOVER HaddonfieldSculpture.org